Imagine a world where you could go for a cup of tea, enjoy a cozy fire, have a cup of warming cinnamon tea or even enjoy a soothing cup of hot cocoa with a slice of a dried orange. The world of Hygge is an often-told tale of warmth and relaxation. It's more than just a story and more than a place. It's a lifestyle. At least, that is what the The Sims is trying to tell us. The Sims 4 Snowfall is a special pack for Sims of which the developer is a fan of The Sims and Hygge lifestyle. The Sims 4 Snowfall brings themed content that celebrates the winter season with a fresh coat of new content. At the moment, the pack only contains 5 new objects that are suited to the winter season. No new clothing or SimAttributes have been created. The following objects are included in The Sims 4 Snowfall: Börje Andrén's Nomadic Campfire Tea Cup Ceramic Mug Smoker Candy Cane You can see all of these and more in the in-game screenshots section. Following the first trailer, we are now able to see the pack in more detail thanks to a preview on The Sims 4 Store. Despite the absence of new clothing and SimAttributes, this set of objects is totally cool. It's a refreshing take on things, a take with a much brighter and cheerful spirit that goes with the theme. With this new Seasonal Object Pack, the developers are trying to enable a different way of looking at the world. You can hear the message behind the objects, and see the developer's message for The Sims 4: it is a game that is meant to bring love and acceptance in a world where some are treated as if they were "less than." It is a key message of The Sims 4, which is a game that tries to bring the world and its people closer. Through its content, the developers want the player to examine people as human beings, with all of their fears and insecurities. It is a game that wants to encourage a change in the way we interact with each other and the way we experience life. Maybe this world of Hygge is a world where we can all be equal, a world of warmth and acceptance. Only time will tell. There is nothing like a warm cup of tea, a fuzzy blanket and the sound of a fireplace in a cold winter day. Microsoft tries to recreate this and other such scenes on your desktop with a theme called A Moment of Hygge PREMIUM. Once installed from the Microsoft Store, this theme can be applied from the Windows Personalization Settings. The desktop and the appearance of the windows is immediately changed: all the windows become white even if you opted for a black-themed interface beforehand. But the centerpiece of this theme is the generous collection of 4K images used as a wallpaper, the ones that can really bring the hygge feeling inside your home. You get to see beautiful coco mugs that will arouse your senses, burning fireplaces to give you that feeling of coziness, cups of hot tea, cinnamon and slices of dried oranges, warm pillows and yellow lights, cats or dogs sleeping comfortably on soft beds, candles that offer you that sense of serendipity. Just viewing these images on the desktop as the wallpapers are rotated can bring you peace. Enrich your desktop with this theme, which is perfect for the winter season!
